COTTON AND PAPER SPUN TOGETHER MAKE UP NEW TEUTON CLOTH INVENTION

Associated Press Correspondent
Copenhagen, Denmark, Aug. 30.—A new German textile in which paper is spun with about 20 per cent of cotton is being exhibited here.

Despite rotation in the form of doves, it adheres to one side of endless rolls of paper and the paper is then drawn into intricate bands which are spun with the cotton side outward.

and his assistants made an examination of it with fatal results. The director's office was completely demolished, the wall was completely blown out and all the occupants of the room were turned into small pieces.

Articles of Incorporation of Manufacturers Sales Co.

We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States of America and subscribers to the capital stock of the Manufacturers Sales Co., being desirous to form a corporation under and in pursuance to the laws of the State of New Mexico, and having associated ourselves together for that purpose, have agreed and hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I.

The name of said corporation shall be Manufacturers Sales Co.

ARTICLE II.

The purpose and object for which said corporation is formed is the buying and selling, both at retail and wholesale, of goods, wares and merchandise, and generally the doing of everything necessary in the carrying on of a general mercantile business.

In furthermore and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of New Mexico, and of the objects and purposes aforesaid, it is hereby expressly provided that the company shall have all the following powers, that is to say:

To do any or all of the things herein set forth as objects, purposes, powers or otherwise to the same extent and so fully as natural persons might or could do and in any part of the United States as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise.

ARTICLE III.

The purpose and object for which said corporation is formed is the buying and selling, both at retail and wholesale, of goods, wares and merchandise, and generally the doing of everything necessary in the carrying on of a general mercantile business.

In furthermore and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of New Mexico, and of the objects and purposes aforesaid, it is hereby expressly provided that the company shall have all the following powers, that is to say:

To do any or all of the things herein set forth as objects, purposes, powers or otherwise to the same extent and so fully as natural persons might or could do and in any part of the United States as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise.

ARTICLE IV.

The rights, privileges, conditions and limitations following shall attach to the shares aforesaid, that is to say:

This company shall not be at liberty without the consent in writing first obtained of the holders of two-thirds in amount of the capital stock of this corporation.

To create or issue any other or further shares of capital stock, or increase the capital stock of this corporation.

Not to create any charge, except as hereinafter provided, upon the net assets of this corporation, which shall not be subordinate to the rights of the holders of the capital stock of this corporation.

The balance of the net profits of the corporation, after the payment of all legitimate charges and expenses of said corporation, may be distributed among the holders of the capital stock of this company, as such times as and when the Board of Directors of this company shall in their discretion determine.

ARTICLE V.

The term for which this corporation is to exist shall be fifty years from the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation in the office of the State Corporation Commission of the State of New Mexico.

ARTICLE VI.

The principal place of business and the principal office of this corporation is at Albuquerque, in the County of Bernalillo, in the State of New Mexico, and the agent of this corporation in charge of said office is Albert Stern, whose post office address is Albuquerque, New Mexico.

ARTICLE VII.

(a) The Board of Directors shall have no power to make, alter, amend and rescind the by-laws of this corporation.

(b) The Board of Directors in addition to the powers and authorities by the statutes of the State of New Mexico and by the by-laws of this corporation expressly conferred upon them, are hereby empowered to exercise all such powers and to do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the corporation, but subject nevertheless to the provisions of the laws of the State of New Mexico, of this charter and to such regulations as may be made from time to time by the stockholders.

(c) The stockholders shall at their first meeting elect by ballot or viva voce, a board of directors, to manage and control the affairs of this corporation, subject to the provisions, clauses and limitations contained in this charter, and the said Board of Directors when so elected shall immediately, or as soon after their election as is convenient, hold a meeting and elect a President, a Secretary and a Treasurer of and corporation.

(d) The Directors shall determine by a vote the compensation to be paid to the officers of this corporation.

(e) The Directors shall, from time to time, determine whether and to what extent and what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the corporation, or any of them, shall be opened to the inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account or book or document of the corporation, except such right is conferred by the laws of the State of New Mexico, or authorized by the directors.

(f) The directors shall have power to hold their meetings, to have one or more offices, and to keep the books of the corporation at such places as may be from time to time designated by them.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our names and seals this 25th
